From: "Financial Times Briefing" <FT@news-alerts.ft.com> [52.89.235.177]
To: "Barak barak" <ehbarak1@gmail.com>
Date: 5/10/2016 4:00:29 AM UTC
Subject: In today's FT: Brexit to cost ‘tens o f thousands’ of City jobs...

Tuesday May 10 2016

UK HOMEPAGE

Brexit to cost ‘tens of thousands’ of City jobs

Treasury believes 285,000 financial services jobs are linked to EU

Berlin opens way to Greek debt relief talks

Eurozone finance ministers hail move to break impasse threatening IMF role in €86bn bailout

Indian group makes late bid for Tata Steel

Seven interested parties go through to next round of sale process

US HOMEPAGE

Brazil speaker annuls impeachment vote

Real falls as expected removal of President Dilma Rousseff hits obstacle

Lew warns time running out in Puerto Rico

US Treasury secretary says moment has come to hammer out rescue package for debt-ridden island

Trump names Christie as transition chief

Republican presidential contender continues feud with party establishment

EUROPE HOMEPAGE

Austrian leader quits after far-right surge

Departure highlights falling public support for country’s 2 mainstream parties

Lending Club CEO out after internal review

Sale of $22m in near-prime loans ‘violated company business practices’

China inflation data calm Asia markets

Weaker yen buoys Japan’s Nikkei and Topix indices

ASIA HOMEPAGE

Duterte claims Philippines poll triumph

Early results signal controversial strongman known as ‘Dirty Harry’ is on course for landslide win

Worry over surging global dividends

Unusual situation that tends to occur only in periods of widespread economic weakness

TPG raises $10.5bn for new buyout fund

Private equity firm stages comeback after run of ill-fated deals

MARKETS

China companies borrow to repay debts in latest credit binge

Share of borrowing used to refinance debt is rising, study shows, as impact on GDP growth is falling

Prime money market funds pull back from short-dated debt paper

New regulations have led to move, hitting an important dollar funding source for foreign banks

Global banks turn more wary on UK over Brexit economic fallout

Credit Benchmark says lenders have turned more cautious towards the UK this year

Freeport-McMoRan declines after mine stake deal

S&P 500 healthcare sector posts biggest gain among US stocks

Wall St hesitant as oil reverses gains

Dollar extends advance against yen

WORLD NEWS

Spain’s Podemos forms leftwing election alliance

Anti-austerity party deal with Izquierda Unida raises stakes for centre-left Socialists

Berlin plans pensions boost to counter AfD advance

Merkel’s government seeks to win back voters who have flocked to anti-immigration party

The Saudi Reshuffle: five key reforms in Riyadh

Technocrats charged with reducing kingdom’s reliance on oil

Uber is at the heart of China’s oversharing economy

Notebook: In Shanghai’s endless traffic jams, there is time to dispense advice at the lights

Trump v Clinton: whose side are they on?

Billionaire Republican has taken positions to the left of his Democratic rival

COMPANIES NEWS

Freeport-McMoRan mired in Indonesian uncertainty

US company is struggling to secure a contract extension at vast copper and gold mine in Papua

Progress on maternal mortality hindered by ‘funding mismatch’

Funders must be matched with the right programmes and implementers to push further innovation

Farmers suffer ‘unacceptable’ delay in subsidy payments

Tens of thousands in financial hardship as a result of delays, warn MPs

First freight trains from China arrive in Tehran

Land route takes 14 days compared with 45 by sea

Map: Connecting central Asia

A ribbon of road, rail and energy projects to help increase trade

COMMENT

Saudi Arabia’s reforms show serious intent

Reorganising government underlines the urgent need for change

Auditing: Pitch battle

The sector faces a shake-up as firms are forced to tender for contracts and invest in technology

Cameron’s conundrum about offshore finance

UK should back measures that are practical, not just crowd pleasing

UK diplomacy must maintain an edge in the face of competition

Ambassadors need good language skills to be ready for a Paxman-like grilling, writes James Blitz

How Donald Trump has changed the world

The Republican party’s presumptive nominee is now the standard-bearer of the far right in the west

MANAGEMENT

Purveyor of French couture to children

Bonpoint, maker of luxury kids’ clothing for the rich and famous, is ready for a growth spurt

António, Macau

In the former colony’s quaint backstreets is a Portuguese-inspired restaurant favoured by locals

Eloquent tricks to give speeches clarity

Don’t burden your listeners with overweight sentences, says a new book on eloquence

Strategic quitting and when to pull the plug on a failed project

Arrogance about their own ability to rescue a situation can prevent leaders from changing course

Feedback

Manage portfolio

Subscribe to the FT

Follow the FT

Unsubscribe | My Account | RSS | Privacy Policy | About Us | Help

© THE FINANCIAL TIMES LTD 2016

You have received this email because you have signed up from the NBE preference page.

This email was sent by a company owned by Financial Times Group Limited (FT Group), registered office at Number One Southwark Bridge, London SE1 9HL.

Registered in England and Wales with company number 879531.